PBAPP WILL RAISE PUBLIC CONCERNS ON ADDITIONAL NATIONAL DOMESTIC WATER DEPOSIT REGULATIONS TO SPAN

- Implementation of the Water Services Industry (Water Services, Deposits, Fees and Charges) Regulations 2014, regarding additional domestic water deposits in Penang, is postponed.

PENANG, Monday (29/5/2017): Perbadanan Bekalan Air Pulau Pinang Sdn Bhd (PBAPP) will raise public concerns on additional domestic water deposits chargeable in Penang to the National Water Services Commission (SPAN).

PBAPP understands the viewpoints raised by domestic water consumers on additional domestic water deposits as specified in the Water Services Industry (Water Services, Deposits, Fees and Charges) Regulations 2014.

We will raise this matter with SPAN. As such, PBAPP is postponing the implementation of additional domestic water deposits, as specified in the Water Services Industry (Water Services, Deposits, Fees and Charges) Regulations 2014, in Penang until further notice.

Accordingly, all domestic water consumers are hereby advised to kindly ignore the notices they have received on additional domestic water deposits for now.

PBAPP will make a precise and clear public announcement on this matter before implementing any changes in the future.

Thank You.
